WHAT IS PROPOSED?

The proposal would change rules for candidate lists, election administration, voting access, campaign resources and the counting and publication of results.

OPEN CITIZEN LISTS

Independent candidates can appear on citizen lists and receive preferential votes.

INDEPENDENT ADMINISTRATION

Selection, training and oversight of election administrators would be strengthened.

ACCESSIBLE VOTING

The draft addresses mobile voting, accessible voting and voter registers.

FOUR PRIORITIES

1 Citizen lists with independent candidates.

2 Election administration independent of political parties.

3 Transparent counting and faster publication of results.

4 Restrictions on public administration and public resources in campaigns.

Other provisions address four electoral regions, gender representation, voting from abroad, political finance, media access and campaign advertising.
